In an interview at Cambridge

Hospital, where he is recovering from gunshot wounds he inflicted himself in a final shootout with law enforcement authorities, Tsarnaev told reporters that he had not expected to survive and that he hoped to live to see his son, now 2 months old, grow up. But he was very pleased that the bombing suspect did perish when a bomb exploded at the finish line, in fact “glad to know that because I don’t have anything to live for anymore.” Tsarnaev said he knew his brother had to be dead, “and
