Q: How to change background colour of button while doing an http request using retrofit? I have a method called "openButton" which has a button and I want to change the background color when I click on it. In the documentation I only see the way to do it when I'm on my main class, but I don't see it when I run the app (I use retrofit). Here is my openButton method: public void openButton(String lat, String longi){ Button action = (Button) findViewById(R.id.button); action.setOnClickListener(new View.OnClickListener() { @Override public void onClick(View v) { // openMap(lat, longi); Log.d("test", lat+ " " + longi); } }); } A: You have to first define an onClickListener in the xml file and then call your method. To do this, in your xml file, you have to add a button which will look like this: It's a bit different for the method, here is a more compact xml way:

RPG Maker VX Ace - DS Resource Pack Torrent Download [key Serial] This means that you can save up to 30% of memory. It's your task to carry out your task as a firefighter. The fun of the RPG Maker VX Ace DS Resource Pack comes in the form of the Firefighters' equipment, which is most of the time attached to something with flames. The weapons and armor you will use to fight the monster include your weapon and shovel. The shovel is such a helpful tool, it can be deployed as a bridge or even as a fire extinguisher. The VX Ace DS Resource Pack must have been made with much love for gamers. The goal of the game is to put out every fire in your game world. All flames must be put out or else the inhabitants will flee and they will tell their friends. It's important not to leave the game environment because the beasts will escape and it will never be possible to put out their fires. The map in the game is made to help you finding the fire. You must enter the local area to put out the fires. Sometimes there might be a gate which is closed and then you can fight the enemy from another place. It's hard to imagine that a fire can wipe out all of the fairies. You must save all of them and that's the real challenge.
